Paying Your Fare

Effective July 1, 2018

Your fare is determined by your mode of travel, time of day, and how many zones you travel in. Below are tips for how to pay for your transit trip by mode.

- Buses are a one-zone fare, all day, every day.
 - SkyTrain and SeaBus require a one-, two-, or three-zone fare, depending on the time of day and number of zones boundaries on your trip.
- After 6:30 p.m. on weekdays and all day Saturday, Sunday, and Holidays, travel across the entire Metro Vancouver region only requires a one-zone fare.
- Compass Cards, Compass Tickets and contactless credit card payment provide seamless transfers between Bus, SkyTrain and SeaBus
- A single fare is valid for 90 minutes on bus, SkyTrain and SeaBus.
- Your fare is calculated from the time you tap in and tap out at a card reader. Note the time you tap your card when starting your journey and ending.

Paying on the Bus

Using a Compass Card, Compass Ticket or Contactless Credit Card

- When you board, tap your card, ticket or mobile wallet on the card reader located near the bus doors. You don't need to tap out when exiting.
- Compass Cards cannot be purchased on the bus.
 - Single Adult Fare - Day Pass - $10.25

Cash only accepted on Bus.

- Place the coins (exact change required) into the farebox. You'll get a bus transfer that can be used to transfer between buses (but not on SkyTrain or SeaBus) and is your proof of payment.
 - Single Adult Fare - $2.95

Paying on SkyTrain, SeaBus, and West Coast Express.

Must use a Compass Card, Compass Ticket, or Contactless Credit Card

- To travel on SkyTrain, SeaBus or West Coast Express, you'll need a Compass Card, Compass Ticket, or to pay using your M/C or Visa credit card or mobile wallet (Tap-to-Pay).
 - Paper bus transfers are only valid for transfer between buses.
- Tap your card, ticket or mobile wallet to the card reader at the fare gates
- When you tap out, the system calculates the fare zones you've travelled and charges you the correct fare. This applies to all products.
